G. CHAD PERRY III GRAND COURTROOM

Attorneys may possess electronic devices¹ in the courtroom provided the devices operate in silent mode, do not interfere with equipment used in the courtroom, and are not used to record the proceedings, courtroom, or participants. Absent leave from the Panel, electronic devices may not be used to send texts, emails, or voice communications from the courtroom during any judicial proceedings.

Members of the public, including non-attorney parties, may not possess electronic devices in the courtroom, except as permitted by the Panel.

For additional information on the procedures for courtroom entry and other courtroom protocol, please visit the Panel's Website at Panel Hearing Information, where the information will be posted in advance of the hearing.

¹ "Electronic device" embraces any and all equipment (regardless of how it is powered or operated) that can be used for (1) wireless communication; (2) receiving, creating, capturing, storing, retrieving, sending, or broadcasting any signals or any text, sound, or images; or (3) accessing the internet or any other network or off-site system or equipment for communication or for storing or retrieving information.
