on
MULTIDISTRICT LITIGATION

IN RE: JUUL LABS, INC., MARKETING, SALES PRACTICES, AND PRODUCTS LIABILITY LITIGATION

MDL No. 2913

TRANSFER ORDER

Before the Panel: Plaintiffs in actions pending in the Northern District of Georgia (Patel) and the District of South Carolina (Cunningham) separately move under Panel Rule 7.1 to vacate our orders conditionally transferring their respective actions to the Northern District of California for inclusion in MDL No. 2913. The actions are listed on the attached Schedule A. Defendant JUUL Labs, Inc. (JLI) opposes both motions.

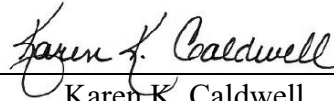

After considering the argument of counsel, we find that the Patel and Cunningham actions involve common questions of fact with actions transferred to MDL No. 2913, and that transfer will serve the convenience of the parties and witnesses and promote the just and efficient conduct of the litigation. The actions in the MDL share factual questions arising from allegations that “JLI has marketed its JUUL nicotine delivery products in a manner designed to attract minors, that JLI’s marketing misrepresents or omits that JUUL products are more potent and addictive than cigarettes, that JUUL products are defective and unreasonably dangerous due to their attractiveness to minors, and that JLI promotes nicotine addiction.” See In re Juul Labs, Inc., Mktg., Sales Practices & Prods. Liab. Litig., 396 F. Supp. 3d 1366, 1367 (J.P.M.L. 2019). The Patel and Cunningham plaintiffs do not dispute that their actions implicate those same questions.

In opposition to transfer, plaintiffs argue that vacatur is warranted because federal subject matter jurisdiction over their actions is lacking, and they have motions for remand to state court pending before the respective transferor courts. The Panel consistently has held, however, that the pendency of jurisdictional objections does not pose an impediment to Section 1407 transfer. E.g., In re Prudential Ins. Co. of Am. Sales Practices Litig., 170 F. Supp. 2d 1346, 1347 (J.P.M.L. 2001) (noting that “remand motions can be presented to and decided by the transferee judge,” and that transferor courts wishing to rule on such motions generally “have adequate time to do so”).

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Patel and Cunningham actions are transferred to the Northern District of California, and, with the consent of that court, assigned to the Honorable William H. Orrick III for inclusion in the coordinated or consolidated pretrial proceedings.
